第三屆中文傳承教育國際研討會

The Third International Conference

on

Chinese Heritage Education:

Cornerstone to US Global Collaboration

【中文傳承教育：立足全美、放眼世界】

August 12-13, 2017

Double Tree by Hilton Hotel, Newark, CA, USA

The National Council of Associations of Chinese Language Schools (NCACLS) is pleased to announce its third international conference on “Chinese Heritage Education: Cornerstone to US Global Collaboration” to highlight the importance of Chinese heritage education in the US for its role in global engagements and collaborations.

The conference will feature Chinese language educators and their best practices in the areas of: Global Competence; Curriculum Design, Instructional Strategies, Performance Assessment, Educational Leadership, Educational Research, Professional Development, Technology, and Program Development.

This year's conference Keynote speaker is Dr. Tim Xie (謝天蔚教授), Professor Emeritus of California State University, Long Beach. Dr. Xie is a renowned scholar and educator in the field of heritage schools, K-12, as well as teaching innovations using modern technology. We are most privileged and honored to invite Dr. Xie to share his insight on the importance of heritage education in the US today.

We cordially invite teachers, practitioners, administrators, researchers, stakeholders and educational organizations in the heritage school community to attend the conference.
